Phoenix Indian Finishes Its 92nd Year!

Phoenix Indian High School is an unique place. It sits on a road that was named after it. It serves as the home for many students who could come from anywhere within the United States, but who seem to come predominantly from the Southwest. The school is a boarding school; it serves as home away from home. The school could even be categorized as a small city within a larger city!

High school is a memorable time in a young person's life. Coming to P.I. can especially be a memorable, enlightening experience. Within the campus live as many as thirteen different tribes. Students must learn how to interact with those of different cultures. Students also learn the lifestyle of a fast-paced metropolis.

School is a great experience! For those that have taken advantage of their opportunities and talents, many rewards will be deservedly earned.

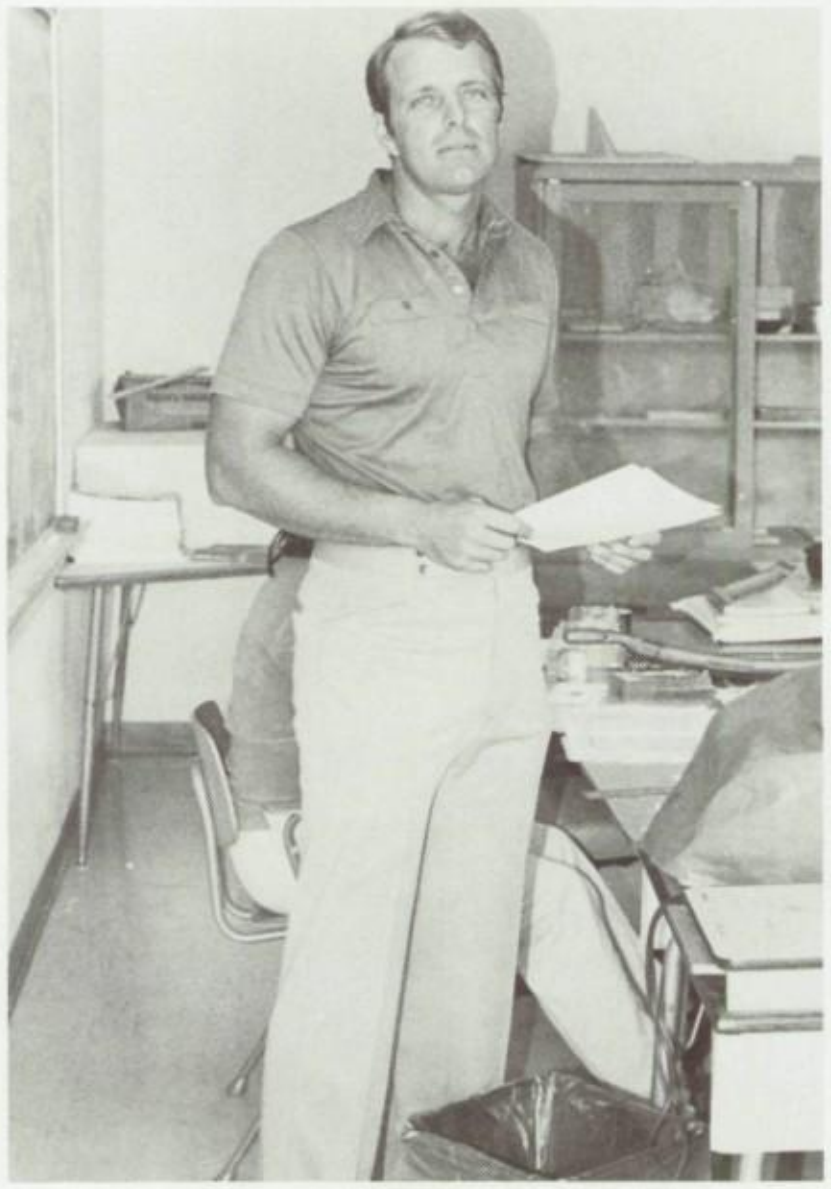
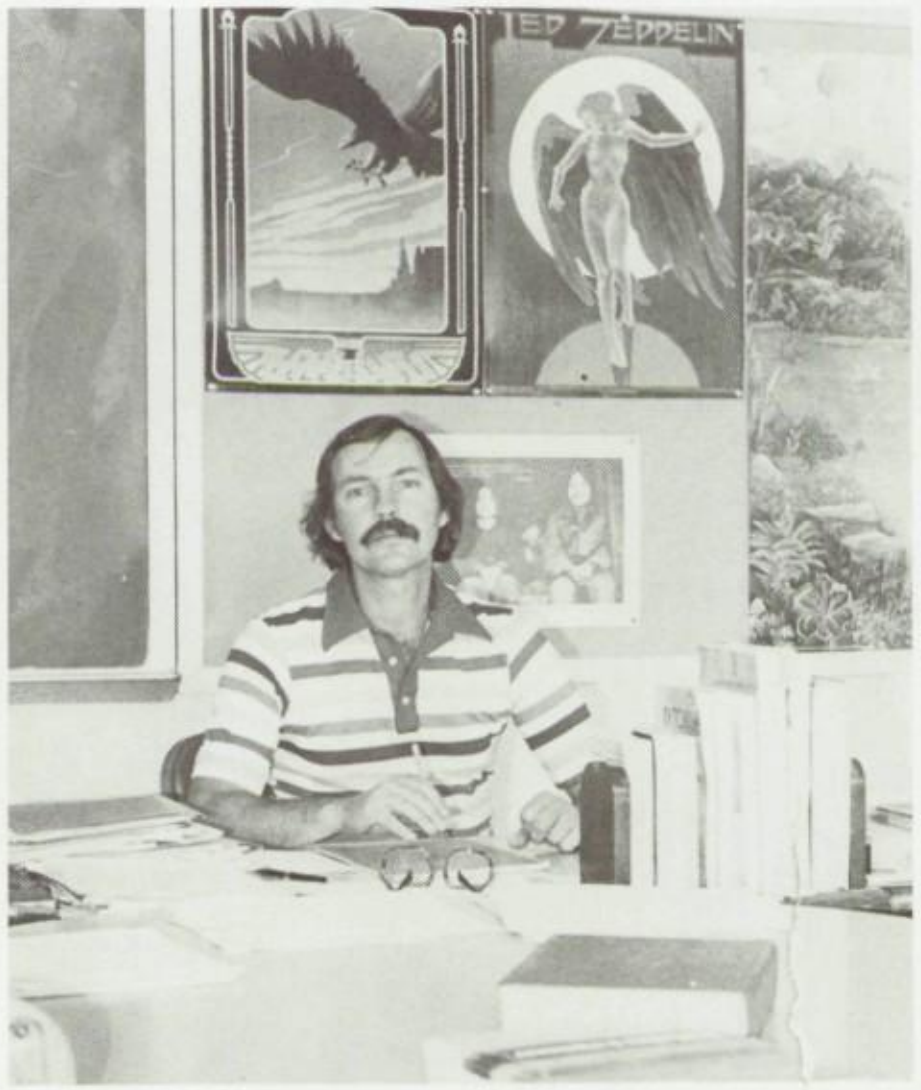
Yearbook And Newspaper Staffs Help Inform Students

The word "Redskin" is an important term around the Phoenix Indian campus. "Redskin" is the name for the school's newspaper and yearbook publication. Students, who are interested in learning journalism and techniques connected with production of publication materials, are involved with the newspaper or yearbook classes. The newspaper is distributed on a bi-monthly basis. The yearbook is developed and organized throughout the year, and it is delivered in the spring.



Paul Reuter directs the yearbook.

Luke Draper, Lorraine Wilson, and Roxann Quotskuyva were photographers and developers.



Gary Lentz offers newspaper staff challenging tidbits.

On Friday, October 15, P.I. campus celebrated homecoming. Throughout the week special events took place. Major events were the pep rally, the game, the half-time parade, and the dance after the game. The Braves played hard but lost 22-0 to Hayden. Patty Way was crowned Homecoming Queen 1982. The theme for homecoming was "Braves on the Warpath Again."

The pep rally brought out much school spirit.

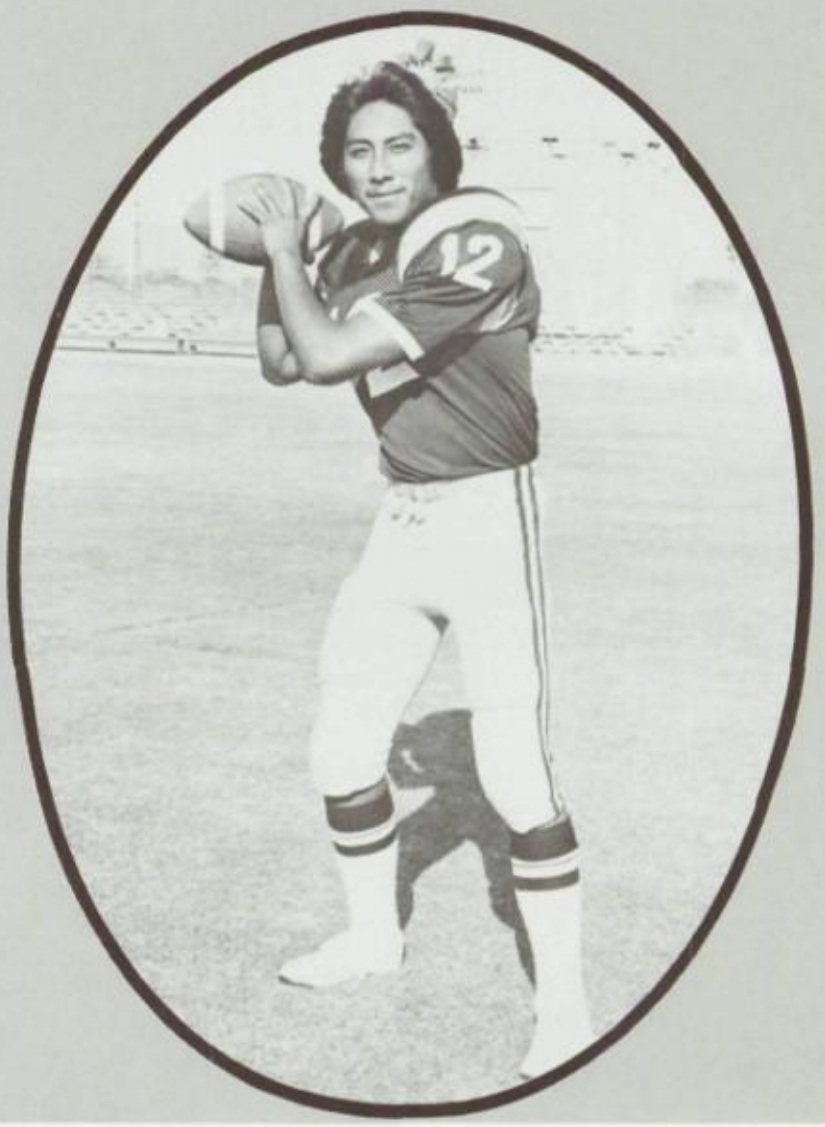
Most Improved Player

Dennis Pablo, a senior from San Miguel, Arizona, is this year's most improved player. Dennis has played football at P.I. for four years. Dennis commented about this year's team, "It was alot of fun, and I had a great year. I want to thank all the coaches for all the help they gave us."

Most Valuable Player

Willard Antone, a senior from Sacaton, Arizona, is this year's most valuable player. He has played for the Braves for three years. He has been the starting quarterback for three years, and the starting defensive halfback for two years. Coach Reuter commented, "Willard was a great leader for us. He helped the team stay together and motivated in many situations. He will be greatly missed and tough to replace."



Managers: Antone, Querta, Jay, Seletstewa, Kill.

The 1982 Braves' football team came out and played solid football, winning four of their first six games. The going got tougher, and the Braves lost their last three games. The J.V.'s posted a 1 win and 3 loss season before the remaining games were cancelled due to lack of participation. Highlights of the season were the opening win over Baboquivari and the trip to Riverside, California, to defeat Sherman Indian 32-0.

Roseann Ramon-manager

The girls' basketball program was again headed by Frank Denipah. The J.V. program was handled by Patricio Vela.

The girls' varsity struggled through the early season. The Bravettes lost their first five games. After Christmas vacation, the acquisition of a few new players helped the team win five of its last ten games. The Bravettes finished 3-3 in conference play.

The girls' junior varsity won eleven and lost two. Coach Vela's team played aggressively and with great spirit. Their two losses were by one and two points respectively. Coach Vela will be remembered for always yelling, "Press," "Hands up," or "Cut them off!"

Cindy Garcia was chosen as an All-Division Basketball player.

Many fine players return for the Bravette basketball program next year.

Braves Battle Hard To Win

The Braves' varsity team had a long season. The team hustled, pressed, and played as hard as they could. One thing was against them all season— a lack of size! The unfortunate outcome was that they could come up with only one victory.

In Memoriam

On February 7, 1983, Frank Cavallo passed away. Mr. Cavallo died after complications following heart surgery. Mr. Cavallo had suffered a heart attack on November 23, 1982.

Mr. Cavallo had been a physical education teacher and coach at P.I. since 1968.

Mr. Cavallo will be remembered for his intense, competitive desire. He will be missed by students and staff at Phoenix Indian.

Band Gives Outstanding Christmas Concert

Fidelis Lopez and Willard Antone listen to introductions.

Hamidreek, Watahomagie, Uqualla, and studentbody listen to concert.

Students and staff march for different goodies in the "cake walk."

The faceless student is "T-Bone" Garcia.

Mr. Lloyd sports "cake walk" treat.

Claudelle Jones gives season's greetings to student body.

Felix, Parra, and Wood await further instructions.

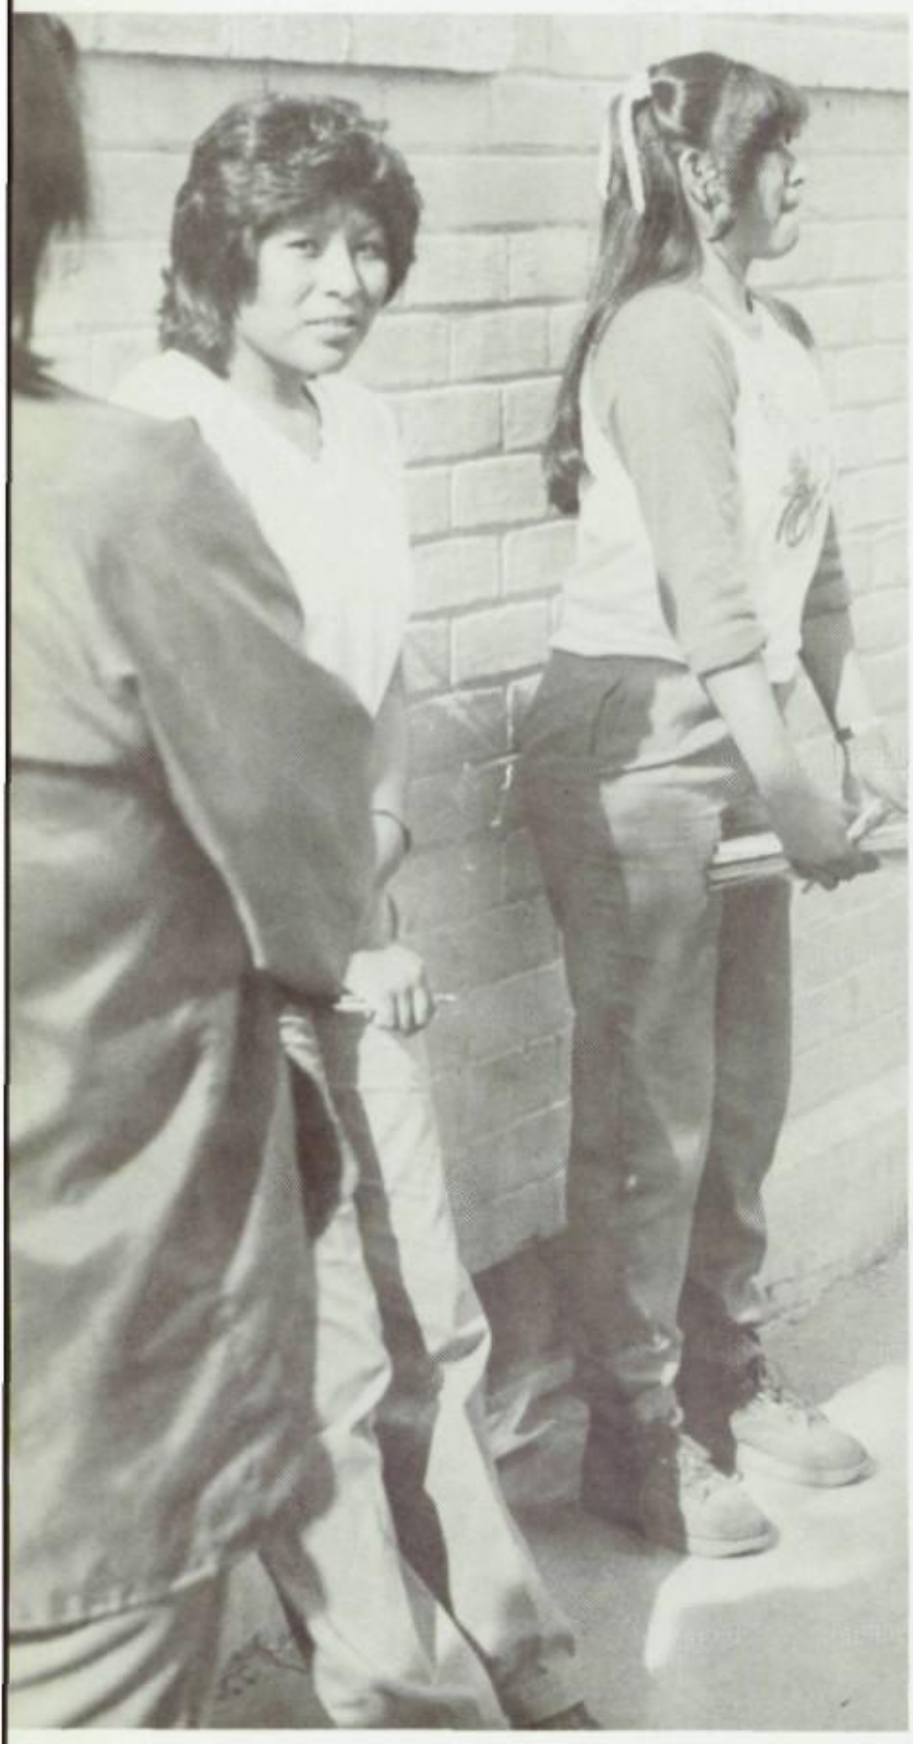
Glenna Lewis and others watch intently.

Band plays yuletide favorites.

Wind instruments perform.

Jose Antone wins "house of future."

Thanksgiving Meal Caters



Cindy Garcia and Francine Garcia wait in long meal line.

Madelyn Barney and Imogene Pablo joke between bites.

Anita Boni chuckles while eating.

Whether it's a festive occasion or the typical Monday breakfast, the cafeteria is responsible for the students' nutritional needs. Furthermore, on major holidays such as Thanksgiving and Christmas, the cafeteria hosts a student and faculty traditional feast. Staff members serve the food and clean up. Parents and local area office administrators visit this special occasion. All that attend enjoy the festivity enormously.

Home Ec. Club dresses turkeys.

To Everyone's Appetite!

Toni Arrum gives her best image.

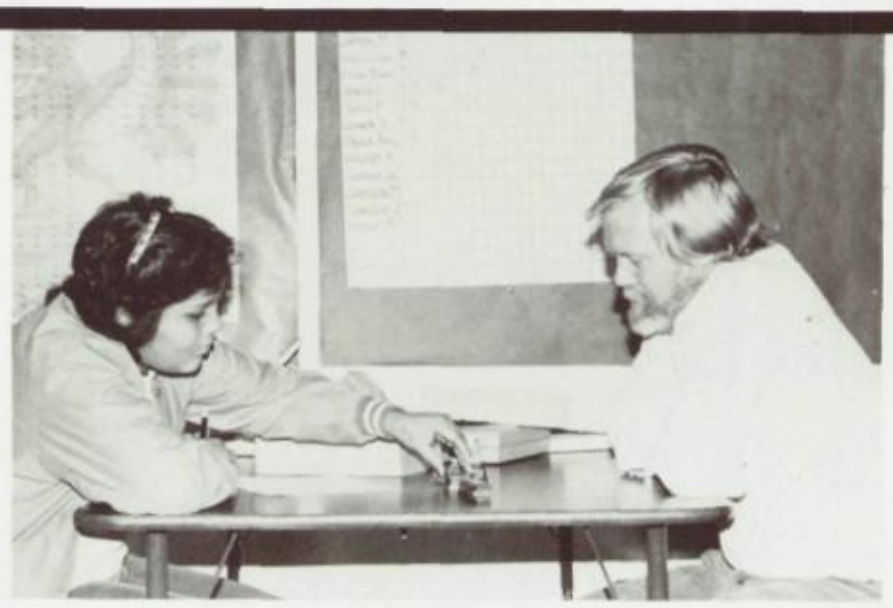
The Resource Room Helps With Each Student's Special Educational Needs

Gatewood and Bendle smile.



Kathy Apkaw divides and Jim Knighton watches.

Yvonne Ventura types.

Annette Wilson and Cyrus Norris pose.

Jennifer Brown shuffles and Marrietta Harkins observes.

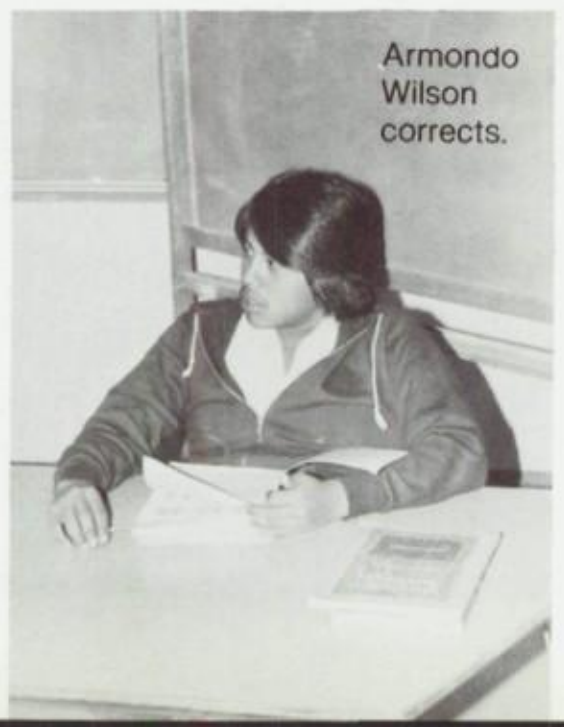
The resource room is a collection of learning materials put together to assist any student in his goal of obtaining a high school education. The approaches to education may vary from student to student, but the spotlight of the resource room remains primarily focused on achievement.

Unfortunately, the learning process is not easy. There are no short cuts. It is hard work and takes dedication on the part of the students and teachers.

Attitude is a big factor. Education can be fun. The game is serious, and the outcome will be a big part of the student's life!

William Kaka observes.

Paula Ahil calculates.



Juan, Alden, and Cable listen.

Clarissa Jones takes notes.

Carlyle Russell ponders.

Caroline UncaSam reads.

Samson Mallow plays.

Madelyn Nelson imagines.

WHAT EVERY NOSE SHOULD KNOW!

Natural gas is one of your safest servants when properly used. But a gas leak can be disastrous. If you smell the odor of gas and can't locate and correct the trouble right away, call us immediately. There's no charge for gas leak investigations.

If you are not familiar with the odor of gas, call us and ask for a free gas "sniffer" card.
